CHILD ABUSE PREVENTION SERVICES (CAPS) NAMED AS TOP FIVE FINALIST IN NEW YORK FOR 2nd ANNUAL CLASSY PHILANTHROPIC RECOGNITION AWARDS

StayClassy and NBC Affiliates Offer More Than $100,000 to Award Winners

ROSLYN, NY: StayClassy, the leader in social fundraising for nonprofits, announced Child Abuse Prevention Services (CAPS) as one of the Top 5 CLASSY Awards Finalists for Small Charity of the Year. CAPS is Long Island's leading nonprofit resource on the prevention of bullying, child abuse and neglect and recently opened a Bully Prevention Center, which offers direct support and solutions to parents of bullied children. CAPS is eligible to receive a $10,000 grant if selected by popular vote, open to all. Cast your vote for CAPS, October 9-22, at classyawards.stayclassy.org.

The 2nd Annual CLASSY Awards recognizes the top philanthropic achievements in eight cities across the country: Boston, Chicago, Las Vegas, Los Angeles, New York City, San Diego, San Francisco, and Washington DC. Each City Winner will represent their hometown and compete in the National voting round from October 23 – November 5 for a chance to win a CLASSY Award. National Winners will be recognized at the CLASSY Awards ceremony in San Diego.

The competition will culminate at a red-carpet awards ceremony on Sunday, November 7 in San Diego. It will feature a host of celebrity presenters, music talent, nonprofit and technology leaders, and hundreds of CLASSY Awards supporters. More than $100,000 will be donated to support the charitable efforts of the ten National CLASSY Awards Winners.

About Child Abuse Prevention Services (CAPS)

Founded in 1982, CAPS is Long Island's leading non-profit resource on the prevention of bullying, child abuse and neglect, and provider of prevention-through-education programs to local Nassau and Suffolk county schools at no cost. The Bully Prevention Center is its newest initiative. CAPS is underwritten by private donations and grants. www.capsli.org
