CAPS BULLYING AND CYBER-BULLYING PARENT EDUCATION SERIES STARTS MONDAY, APRIL 4. SEATING IS LIMITED

ROSLYN, NY: Child Abuse Prevention Services' (CAPS) highly-anticipated parents' support workshop series on bullying and cyber-bullying will begin Monday, April 4, 6PM to 7:30PM, and end Monday, May 16.

This comprehensive, six-session workshop will help parents of children who have been bullied integrate the necessary tools and strategies they need to stop the cycle of harassment. Participants may choose to attend individual workshops or the entire series.

Through supportive empowerment and education, parents will learn how to help their child, how to work with their child's school to reinstate safety, about the various legal recourses and implications related to bullying, as well as the clinical options that are most appropriate for children who have experienced bullying.

This workshop series will be presented by the Coordinator of the Bully Prevention Center, Mor Keshet, MPS, LCAT. To register or for information about the series, call 516-621-0552 ext 109 or e-mail mkeshet@capsli.org.
